GROGAN'S

We make it possible for you to buy many of your Christmas Gifts for a very small amount of cash at this time.

Nothing is more sensible or more acceptable than some article to add to the furnishings of a home. A Handsome Parlot Table, an Easy Chair, a Piece of Cut Glass and a hundred other things to be found in our store make ideal presents.

Buy them now and let us mark them for Christmas delivery. A little later will come the rush, and hurried selections are not always the most satisfactory.

We are perfectly willing to charge your purchases on an open account, with future payments divided as you may ask. No notes are required and no interest is charged.

NEW INSURANCE CHIEF TO BE APPOINTED SOON

Utilities Board to Resume Inquiry Into Washington Railway and Electric Affairs.

Confronted by stacks of papers requiring their official indorsement, the District Commissioners, who put in little time at their desks during the last two weeks on account of being required to explain the municipality's estimates to Congress, appeared at the District building early this morning prepared to get a lot of work done before Christmas.

Important problems affecting several departments under their respective juris-dictions confront the Commissioners. For example, the insurance department, which is specially assigned to Commissioner Newman, president of the board, is to be provided with a new superintendent, George W. Ingham, the incumbent, having submitted his resignation several

Many Seek Position.

Many applicants for the position, of whom the latest is William S. Quinter, a local insurance man, are in the field. It is expected that early announcement will be made of the appointment of a successor to Mr. Ingham.

Col. Harding has plenty of work cut out for h'mself as chairman of the public utilities commission, to say nothing of the duties that confront him as Engineer Commissioner. Tomorrow aftermoon he will resume the investigation being made by the commission into the financial status of the Washington Railway and Electric Company. This inquiry may last a couple of weeks longer, and it is expected that daily sessions will be held until it is concluded. It was announced today that decisions in the universal transfer and taxicab cases, which the commission has under advisement, may not be made until after the utilities board has finished with the inspection of the books of the Washington Railway and Electric Company. Considering Bread Law.

One of the important matters pending in Commissioner Siddons' office is the proposal for the adoption of a bread law Commissioner Siddons also will be required to give attention to the obtaining of bids for the construction of shelter stands on the farmers' market, for which an appropriation has been made and plans prepared by the municipal archi-

The hearings by the House appropri ations subcommittee in charge of the framing of the District budget has delayed the execution of a contract for the layed the execution of a contract for the building of the two-hundred-and-seventy-five-thousand-dollar concrete bridge which is to span Rock Creek, connecting Q street in Washington with Q street in Georgettown. Col. Harding has signed a paper authorizing the awarding of a contract for this work to A. L. Guidon of New York, but the other Commissioners have not had time to approve it. It is expected that this matter will be early disposed of, although there is little probability of work on the bridge starting until after the first of the year.

Civil Service Examinations to Be Held for Federal Offices.

Farmers who can write and spell, who know farm economy from A to Z, which includes the construction of farm buildings; who know all about soils, crops, stock and dairying; how to keep accounts, and, last but not least, who can pass a civil service examination, are wanted by the government in the Indian service, if with all of these attainments they are willing to accept laborers' wages. There are six vacancies, paying from $720 to $900 per annum. The examination to fill them is to be held January 7 next. The civil service commission January 7 and 8 will hold examinations to secure cligibles for the appointment of junior chemists in the bureau of chemistry. Department of Agriculture, bureau of mines, bureau of soils and bureau of standards. January 7 also there will be examina tions for assistant in paper-plant investigations in the Department of Agriculture at a salary of $1,380 a year, and a civil engineer student in the office of public roads at a salary of $720. Two examinations already have been held to fill the latter vacancy, but the civil service commission has been unsuccessful in obtaining any one for the position. January 5 an examination will be held to fill a vacancy as copperplate map
